Evening In-Service - Thursday October 11th at 5:30pm

Mandatory for all CASA Volunteers:* Marcia Ryan will be conducting an attachment and trauma training at the CASA office. We look forward to seeing you unless we hear otherwise.

First quarter is already wrapping up at school this month!! Now is the time to connect with your CASA kid's teachers if you haven't yet. If you need assistance, please call the CASA office.

I Am Not Your Perfect Mexican Daughter is now available in the Adams County CASA Library and is available for check-out!

Perfect Mexican daughters do not go away to college. And they do not move out of their parent's house after high school graduation. Perfect Mexican daughters never abandon their family.

But Julia is not your perfect Mexican daughter. That was Olga's role.

Then a tragic accident on the busiest street in Chicago leaves Olga dead and Julia left behind to reassemble the shattered pieces of her family. And no one seems to acknowledge that Julia is broken too. Instead, her mother seems to channel her grief into pointing out every possible way Julia has failed.

But it's not long before Julia discovers that Olga might not have been as perfect as everyone thought. With the help of her best friend Lorena, and her first kiss, first love, first everything boyfriend Connor, Julia is determined to find out. Was Olga really what she seemed? Or was there more to her sister's story? And either way, how can Julia even attempt to live up to a seemingly impossible ideal?
