NEW VOLUNTEER TRAINING

NOV 11-14, 2019

If you know someone who might be interested in this training, please let Libby know.

VOLUNTEER MEETING

Due to the volunteer training, there will not be a volunteer meeting in November.

WE ARE THANKFUL FOR YOU!

DURING THIS TIME OF THANKSGIVING , WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK EVERYONE WHO HAS SUPPORTED THIS PROGRAM. WITHOUT YOU, WE COULD NOT CONTINUE PROVIDING THE SERVICES WE DO TO THE ABUSED AND NEGLECTED CHILDREN RIGHT HERE IN OUR COMMUNITY. YOU ARE TRULY HEROES TO THESE CHILDREN!

While experiencing the holidays with a family not their own can be challenging, placement with a foster family, family friend, or additional relative can still provide a safe place for a youth to spend the season. Involving a youth in holiday preparations, explaining who will be there, and what to expect can alleviate some of the anxiety they may feel from the idea of large gatherings. Recognizing that a foster child feels an absence of family during this time and understanding the sadness that follows will ensure that their feelings are not ignored. Hearing that their presence is one to be thankful for and knowing that they have a special place at the table can remind each child that they matter.

THANK YOU
Volunteers!
We couldn't do it without you
